

Two Candidates.

Only One Will Protect What's Important to You.

Rick Perry.

Reckless and Wrong on Social Security.

Social Security a "Failure?"

Rick Perry believes Social Security is a "failure:"¹

"By any measure, Social Security is a failure."

Social Security Unconstitutional?

Rick Perry believes Social Security is unconstitutional:²

"Social Security is something that we've been forced to accept for more than 70 years now. ... at the expense of respect for the Constitution and limited government."

End Social Security?

Rick Perry does not believe Social Security should exist.³

In fact, Perry's campaign doesn't deny that Perry wants to end Social Security.⁴

Rick Perry:
How can we trust
anyone who wants to kill Social Security?

Mitt Romney.

Preserve and Protect Social Security.

Save Social Security for Current and Future Retirees

Mitt Romney wants to save Social Security ...

Ensuring the program that millions of Americans rely on will be there for our children and grandchildren.

Keep Our Promises to Today's Seniors

Mitt Romney will not raise taxes and knows that any serious attempt to rein in spending will have to include entitlement reform ...

Preserving Social Security and Medicare benefits for current retirees and future generations of Americans.

Preserve Social Security for Tomorrow's Retirees

Mitt Romney will ensure that the promises we make to today's workers are ones we can keep ...

Including pursuing a number of options to keep Social Security solvent, from raising the eligibility age to changing the way benefits are indexed for high-income retirees.

www.MittRomney.com

Text "GO" to GOMITT (466488)

to receive exclusive updates and the latest news.

Facebook.com/
MittRomney

Twitter.com/
MittRomney

YouTube.com/
MittRomney

Flickr.com/Photos/
MittRomney

1. Rick Perry, Fed Up!, 2010, p. 62 2. Rick Perry, Fed Up!, 2010, p. 50
3. MSNBC's "Morning Joe," 11/5/10 4. Huffington Post, 9/8/11

Paid for by Romney for President, Inc.